

BIOGRAPHY OF MICHAEL A. MOSES

MICHAEL A. MOSES is a founding member of Siegel Moses & Schoenstadt, PC which concentrates its practice in most legal aspects of the alcoholic beverage industry. The firm's clients hail from all three "tiers" of the federal and state-mandated alcoholic beverage industry. Within the supplier tier their clients include foreign and domestic distilleries wineries and breweries, as well as U.S. importers. On the wholesale level, they represent both local and national distributors of spirits, wine and beer. At the retail level, their clients include regional, national and international hotel and restaurant chains. Included with their principal areas of concentration are federal and state litigation (at the trial and appellate level), administrative proceedings, regulatory matters with various federal and state agencies, commercial agreements amongst members of the industry, licensing, as well as advertising and marketing guidance. The collective experience of their principals spans more than 100 years. Mike was born in Detroit, Michigan, March 11, 1950; has been in Chicago since 1975; is admitted to bars of Illinois and Texas; the U.S. District Court, Northern District of Illinois, including trial bar; the U.S. Courts of Appeals for the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Circuits, as well as the U.S. Supreme Court. Education: University of Michigan undergraduate 1972 and University of Detroit Law School 1975. He is a member of: Chicago, state of Illinois and Texas, bar associations; the American Bar Association and is a member of the sections on Litigation; Administrative Law; Criminal Justice; Business and Franchise Law). Internationally, he has practiced before the International Court of Commerce of The International Chamber of Commerce.